

IT, Cloud & Infrastructure (Remote)

One of the biggest trends of 2021 is that of companies hiring remotely for the first time.

This has allowed companies to fill roles that were vacant for some time, usually at lower-than-expected salaries.

Not only can you find skills that don't exist in your local area, it can give you a huge competitive advantage over those with a traditional "on-prem" approach to hiring.

So far in 2021, the biggest demand has been for:

- AWS and Azure, Google Cloud
- Kubernetes, Docker
- Managed Service Providers
- Infrastructure & Networking

This is just a preview of our current candidates - Shift F5 also specialise in placing - Data Scientists, AI Engineers & Business Intelligence, Technical leaders – Heads of Engineering, CTOs, Software Engineers & Developers, Marketing & Digital specialists
